DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The examiner withdraws the drawing objection in regards to applicant's remarks.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-14 are allowed over the prior art.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art discloses a stator for a dynamoelectric machine having an annular stator core with a plurality of slots that extend axially and are disposed in a circumferential direction and a stator winding that are installed in the slots in which the stator winding comprises a plurality of winding sub-positions. However, in regards to independent claim 1 the prior art does not disclose a stator having a slot-housed portions housed in a plurality of housing positions of the slots so as to be lined up in one row from an inner circumferential side to an outer side in each of the slots and the each of the housing positions is designated by a corresponding address indicating a location of each of the housing positions from an inner circumferential side to an outer circumferential side in each of the slots and the total number of housing positions in each of the slots is greater than an equal to four. The distant-address joint portions in the slot-housed portions are housed in addresses that are separated by at least three addresses in the slots in each slot pair are joined together outside the slots and the near-address joint portions in which the slot-housed portions housed in addresses separated by less than three addresses in the slots in each slot pair are joined together outside the slots.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
